

The Congregation at Prayer

*A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer
For the Week of the Ninth Sunday after Pentecost
August 2, 2020 through August 9, 2020*

Catechesis Notes for the Week— The Fifth and Sixth Petitions—Faith in Christ's Righteousness Brings True Freedom — Faith in Christ's righteousness, which is a free gift of God's grace that covers all our sin, gives true freedom. It is by the gift of Christ's righteousness that we learn to commend our fellow sinners to God, not holding their sins against them but sincerely forgiving them and gladly doing good to them, especially when they sin against us (Fifth Petition). It is by the gift of Christ's righteousness that we are delivered from every evil (Sixth Petition). This is why faith continues to pray that God would preserve us in His forgiveness against all evil. Satan's desire is to tempt us away from the free gift of the righteousness of Christ. When our faith moves away from Christ's righteousness then false belief, despair, and other great shame and vice come into our hearts and lives. So the faith that receives Christ's righteousness is always calling upon Him in prayer to preserve us in the freedom of His righteousness.

The Catechism: The Lord's Prayer—the Fifth and Sixth Petitions

What is the Fifth Petition? And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.	Preschool +
What does this mean? We pray in this petition that our Father in heaven would not look at our sins, or deny our prayer because of them. We are neither worthy of the things for which we pray, nor have we deserved them, but we ask that He would give them all to us by grace, for we daily sin much and surely deserve nothing but punishment. So we too will sincerely forgive and gladly do good to those who sin against us.	Second Grade +
What is the Sixth Petition? And lead us not into temptation.	Preschool +
What does this mean? God tempts no one. We pray in this petition that God would guard and keep us so that the devil, the world, and our sinful nature may not deceive us or mislead us into false belief, despair, and other great shame and vice. Although we are attacked by these things, we pray that we may finally overcome them and win the victory.	Third Grade +
